"A PHOEBE NEEDLES CHRISTMAS"

DECEMBER 11TH, 2018

The B Sharps and Cara Ellen Modisett will present "A Phoebe Needles Christmas."

The B Sharps is a group of mostly retired men and women from around Smith Mountain Lake who enjoy singing. Most are "come heres" from other states with some native Virginians. They visit retirement and rehab facilities to hopefully bring a little sunshine to the residents. They also regularly visit a day care center for the handicapped and disabled as well as a school for disabled, handicapped, and autistic children. The B Sharps will perform Christmas songs for the first hour of the program. They encourage you to sing along as many of the songs will be familiar.

For the second hour of the program, Cara Ellen Modisett will perform Christmas music. Modisett is music director of St. Elizabeth's Episcopal Church and director of communications for St. John's Episcopal Church in Roanoke. She is also a postulant for holy orders (priesthood) in the Episcopal Church and serves as staff collaborative pianist at Radford University. She has appeared as a chamber musician in many prominent venues, and she worked in several musical theater productions. In addition to a B.M. in piano performance from the James Madison University School of Music, she holds a B.A. in English and an M.F.A. in creative nonfiction and has taught English at Ferrum College and Community High School of Arts and Academics. For more than a decade, she was a reporter/producer, classical announcer and concert organizer for WVTF public radio.

Please join us for a great program, fellowship, lunch, AND BRING A FRIEND!
