“A FRAMEWORK FOR CIVIL DISCOURSE ABOUT RACE AND RACISM”

October 9th, 2018

Dr. Wornie Reed will present “A Framework for Civil Discourse About Race and Racism.”

There is a continuing need to have discussions about race and racism. This presentation presents a way to have such discussions without rancor or discomfort because individuals are not in the equation. This framework is well-known in social science, but not in the general society.

Dr. Reed is currently Professor of Sociology and Africana Studies and Director of the Race and Social Policy Research Center at Virginia Tech University. He received a B.S. degree in Secondary Education (Science and Mathematics at Alabama State University. His M.A. and Ph.D. degrees in Sociology were obtained from Boston University. He has taught courses, conducted research, and published articles and books on medical care, health and illness, urban communities, and criminal and juvenile justice. He has received two Regional Emmys in 2000 and 2003 for his work on the Urban Cancer Project. As a youth, he was an active participant in the civil rights movement.
