“THE PHOEBE NEEDLES MOUNTAIN BAND” JANUARY 10th, 2017

Alan Messenger has shared his passion for music many times over the years at the Phoebe Needles Center. Alan might be joined by David Cannaday, Gene Parker, Marvin Harlow, Ray Holland, and James Guilliams! All are great musicians who have offered their talents many times here over the years. We are so fortunate to have these wonderful musicians in our community!

Alan and his friends will present a variety of music and songs suited for different occasions, but they can be enjoyed on any occasion. Music can uplift, entertain, comfort and inform. Music can make you dance, sing, laugh, cry and hopefully reflect upon life.

Please invite your friends and neighbors to the Center for Lifelong Learning, and bring them along hear to some great music and enjoy a morning of fellowship!

Following the music, join us for a delicious lunch! Please make your reservations early as there will be limited seating.

You can help us out by paying in advance by going to our website: www.PhoebeNeedles.org and using PAYPAL.
