“THE PHOEBE NEEDLES MOUNTAIN BAND”

April 9th, 2018

Alan Messenger and friends will present “The Phoebe Needles Mountain Band.” Alan Messenger has shared his passion for music many times over the years at the Phoebe Needles Center. He and his friends are great musicians that have played at The Phoebe Needles Center many times over various years. We are fortunate to have these wonderful musicians in our community!

Alan and his friends will present a variety of music and songs suited for different occasions, but they can be enjoyed on any occasion. Music can uplift, entertain, comfort and inform. Music can make you dance, sing, laugh, cry, and hopefully, reflect upon life.

Please invite your friends and neighbors to the Center for Lifelong Learning, and bring them along hear to some great music and enjoy a morning of fellowship! Following the music, join us for a delicious lunch! Please make your reservations early as there will be limited seating. We look forward to seeing you there!
