April 12th, 2022

Alan Messenger and friends will present "Phoebe Needles Mountain Band."

Alan Messenger and his friends have shared their passion for music many times over the years at Phoebe Needles Center, Inc. We are fortunate to have these wonderful musicians in our community!

Alan and friends will present bluegrass and old-time songs to help the audience shake off their pandemic blues and brighten spirits. Their tunes are sure to get your feet tapping and bring a smile to your face!

Please invite your friends and neighbors to the Center for Lifelong Learning, and bring them along to hear some great music and enjoy a morning of fellowship! Following the music, join us for a delicious lunch! Please make your reservations early as there will be limited seating.

We look forward to seeing you!
