“SAFE SENIORS FRANKLIN COUNTY”

May 9th, 2023

10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Sergeant Megan Huston of the Franklin County Sheriff’s Office will present “Safe Seniors Franklin County.”

Sgt. Huston will provide a brief overview of the Franklin County Sheriff’s Office, including its resources and capabilities, its national accreditation, the Citizen’s Academy, the Citizens on Patrol program, and the School Safety Initiative. She will also illustrate the current crime trends in Franklin County, educate participants on how they can protect themselves from scams, and provide personal safety tips for seniors.

Sgt. Megan Huston was born and raised in Lexington, VA. She graduated from Ferrum College in 2011 with Bachelor’s Degrees in Psychology and Criminal Justice. She began her law enforcement career in 2012 at the Botetourt County Sheriff’s Office, before coming to Franklin Co. in 2016. In Franklin Co., she worked in Corrections for eight years before being reassigned to her current position of Public Relations and Accreditation in 2020. She is in her eleventh year of law enforcement. Her regular duties include: managing the department’s accreditation and policies, grant writing, managing the department’s social media accounts, coordinating all media releases and interviews, and assisting the Sheriff with special projects. She lives in Glade Hill with her husband and 21-month old son.
