“MOTHER MARY”

September 10, 2024

10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

“Mother Mary” is a workshop devoted to the divinity of Mary as Holy Mother and will include: simple movements, songs, visio divina, stillness, and take-away practices for on-going spiritual growth and exploration. This is a therapeutic and life-affirming experience for all age groups, and modifications are available for those with mobility issues.

DIANA TURNER-FORTE is a sacred dancer, holistic health practitioner, and writer. Her interest in sacred and liturgical dance, ritual and celebration and the sacredness of the body as a vehicle for prayer spans most of her life. She conducts private, small group classes, and workshops that enable participants to explore the synergistic wholeness of body, mind, and soul through dance and to discover their innate healing power. This has led to further explorations of the Divine Feminine and awakened interest in exploring long-forgotten aspects of the sacred feminine experience throughout history. Her blog, Wonderfully Human is a collection of reflections on the intersection between spirit, the human form, and nature. Ms.

Turner-Forte's essays have been published in Stance on Dance, Universal Life Magazine, Kosmos Journal, and other periodicals. Her most recent contribution, "God's in Me, Too!" was published in Experiencing God: Faith Narratives of Episcopalians. She's professed in the Third Order Society of St. Francis (TSSF) and resides in North Carolina with her husband and four-legged creature, Pierre.
